UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
POST DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN PSYCHOLOGY
2016-2017

The University of New Hampshire Counseling Center is accepting applications for three postdoctoral fellow positions. Our 2,000 hour fellowship provides supervised experience in brief treatment, crisis intervention, and clinical supervision. The major goal of our program is to support fellows in further developing and consolidating their skills and identity as counseling center psychologists. Fellows have the opportunity to develop a clinical specialty with therapy and outreach components. In addition, they are responsible for the supervision of the group work doctoral interns. Fellows receive a minimum of 2 hours of individual supervision and 3 hours of group supervision weekly as well as participate in specialized trainings that complement the fellow’s clinical experience. This program fulfills licensing requirements for postdoctoral supervised experience in New Hampshire.

Minimum Qualifications:
Applicants must complete all requirements for the doctoral degree at an APA accredited Counseling or Clinical psychology program prior to the start date of the fellowship. In addition, applicants must have completed an APA-accredited internship at a university or college counseling center and must actively value social justice. Candidates with a non-accredited internship with APPIC membership may also be considered.

The Staff and University:
The University of New Hampshire was founded in 1866 as a land-grant institution and has an enrollment of approximately 11,000 undergraduates and 2,000 graduate students. It is located in Durham, NH, with a population of 10,000. UNH is a major educational institution in New Hampshire and is committed to offering excellent educational programs and opportunities for its students. The campus, 188 acres in size, is surrounded by more than 3,000 acres of fields, farms and woodlands that are great for hiking, jogging and cross-country skiing. The University also offers fine athletic facilities, and the Paul Creative Arts Center with two theaters and two art galleries.

Eleven licensed psychologists, three post-doctoral fellows, three doctoral interns, a consulting psychiatrist, per diem clinicians, and three support professionals staff the Counseling Center. The Center is accredited by the International Association of Counseling Services, Inc. (IACS) and is a member of the Association of Psychology Internship Centers (APPIC) at the doctoral level. The Counseling Center staff is characterized by a diversity of social identities, training, theoretical orientation and special interests. For more information about our center, please visit our website www.unh.edu/counseling-center.

The University of New Hampshire is a predominately white institution (PWI) with an active commitment to social justice and diversity. http://www.unh.edu/diversity/. Employees from underrepresented groups who thrive here understand the complexity of working at a PWI and value small-town culture with close proximity to metropolitan areas and natural spaces.

Salary and Benefits:
The fellowship is a full-time, twelve-month position beginning in late August 2016 with a minimum stipend of $34,180. New Hampshire does not have a state income tax or sales tax. Fellows receive professional liability, health, and dental insurance. Fellows receive a staff identification card giving them access to the University library, free public transit in the region, and cultural events as well as the opportunity to purchase a parking sticker and a recreation pass. Vacation, sick, and ample professional development time is provided. Fellows have newly furnished offices with windows.

Application:

The UNH Counseling Center will be using APPA CAS, the APPIC-sponsored centralized application.
