

Sent: April 28, 2008

Subject: Upcoming Conferences of Interest

We are writing to remind you about a TDI regional gathering and two important conferences. Please join us at any and all of these, and share this with your colleagues.

June 12, 10 am to 1 pm, Regis University, Denver, Colorado. TDI member Paul Alexander, director of the Institute for the Common Good at Regis University, will be hosting this TDI gathering. Members and curious future members are welcome. Lunch is included. Our goals are to introduce TDI to new campuses in Colorado and to provide TDI members a chance to meet and share ideas and strategies. If you would like to attend, please email Nancy.Thomas@unh.edu.

June 12-15, Everyday Democracy (formerly the Study Circle Resource Center) Denver, Colorado. ED is holding their national "Every Voice Matters" conference. For more information, go here.

June 10-11, George Mason University, Beyond the Academy: Engaging Public Life. Meeting just outside the nation's capital in the midst of a presidential campaign year, public scholars from across the country will discuss the ways in which their work is more than "academic," how it helps strengthen democratic institutions and public life and can bring about civic change. For more information about this conference, go here.