

Transportation Options for Off Campus Health Care

MediCat

MediCat is a confidential transportation service for UNH students living on campus requiring immediate, non-emergency transportation. This service must be arranged by Health Services staff during hours of operation, or by Wentworth-Douglass Hospital staff when Health Services is closed. This service may be used for immediate appointments with specialists, emergency room visits, and special testing to be done off-campus. MediCat is only available once per illness or injury, and may not be used for future appointments.
