Dear (Interviewed Applicant's Name)

Thank you for your interest in employment with the University of New Hampshire and the Department of _____. We appreciated the opportunity to review your materials and to interview you for the position of _____. It was a difficult decision, but we have selected another individual whose qualifications match our needs at this time.

If you wish to pursue other employment opportunities at the University of New Hampshire, please visit the Human Resource website at <http://www.unh.edu/hr/employ/index.html> for a list of current vacancies. We would welcome your applying for any future openings that may occur again in this area.

Best wishes in your job search.

Sincerely,

Personnel Administrator or Hiring Manager
