Work in Progress:

"Idealism and Beyond" An examination of the complex relation between Sellars and idealism in its various forms, including the substantial idealism of the empiricists, the formal idealism of Kant, and the absolute idealism of Hegel.

"Brandom, Sellars, and Observational Reports: Brandom's Two-Ply Error" (Jointly authored with Paul Coates) Submitted; Under Review

"Sense-Certainty and the 'This-Such'" Argues that Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit supplies a deficit in Kant's and Sellars's treatment of intuition. Solicited for a volume on Hegel's Phenomenology; under review

"Brandom and the Spirit of Hegel" A critique of Brandom's interpretation of Hegel's concept of Spirit. Solicited for Brandom's Expressive Vernunft Zwischen Kant Und Hegel. Projected publication 2007.

Is the Given a Myth? Dialogues on Sellarsian Philosophy. (With Timm Triplett) Debates on the adequacy of Sellars' positions in epistemology and philosophy of mind.

"Forms of Trust" Distinguishes several different forms of trust and argues for the priority of trust as a relation between persons

"Representation, Consciousness, and Apperception in Kant," An attempt to say just what the principle of the unity of apperception amounts to.
