

Casey Goodwin

Casey Goodwin is currently the Director of Athletic Bands at the University of New Hampshire, where she directs the UNH Concert Band, Wildcat Marching Band, and Beast of the East Pep Band and teaches undergraduate courses in the areas of conducting and music education. Additionally, she is a faculty member and assistant coordinator of the Summer Youth Music School (SYMS) and a past conductor of the New Hampshire Youth Band. Prior to her appointment at UNH, Goodwin was the Director of Instrumental Music at Marshwood High School in South Berwick, ME.

Goodwin earned her Bachelor of Music in Music Education and her Master of Arts in Music with an emphasis in music education and wind conducting from the University of New Hampshire in 2001 and 2006, respectively. While a graduate student at the university, she served as an assistant conductor of the Wind Symphony, worked as a staff member with the athletic bands, and assisted with various courses within the department.

Goodwin is a member of the College Band Directors' National Association, MENC: The National Association for Music Education, Kappa Kappa Psi, Toastmasters International, and serves as the state Collegiate Coordinator for the New Hampshire Music Educators' Association. In addition to her work at UNH, she is also an active guest conductor and clinician throughout the Northeast and writes drill and arranges music for several area marching bands.
