

To Whom It May Concern:

I was a resident of the Czech Republic on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a U.S. citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I have accepted an invitation by the U.S. government, or by a university or other recognized educational institution in the United States for a period not expected to exceed two years for the purpose of teaching or engaging in research at the University of New Hampshire, which is a recognized educational institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities.

The teaching or research compensation qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the treaty between the United States and the Czech Republic. I have not claimed an income tax exemption immediately preceding this period of time under this treaty for income received as described under the "student and apprentices" section.

Any research I perform will be not be undertaken primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning the teaching or research services for which exemption is claimed]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation received during a period of two years beginning on that date.
