

To Whom it May Concern:

I was a resident of Italy on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a U.S. citizen. I have not been accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I am a professor or teacher visiting the United States for the purpose of teaching or performing research at the University of New Hampshire, which is an educational institution or a medical facility primarily funded from governmental sources. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities.

The compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the treaty between the United States and Italy. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a teacher, researcher or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.

Any research I perform will be undertaken in the general interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival into the United States before beginning the teaching or research services for which exemption is claimed]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation during a period of two years beginning on that date.
