UNIVERSITY of NEW HAMPSHIRE

*Heritage Society
Luncheon*

The Heritage Society recognizes the foresight and generosity of alumni and friends who have made plans to support the University through a deferred gift. The society honors the memory of Benjamin Thompson, whose bequest established the University in Durham in 1893. Members are distinguished by a sterling silver lapel pin, which symbolizes the University's tradition of academic excellence.

As a member of the UNH Heritage Society, you are cordially invited to a special thank-you luncheon with UNH President Mark W. Huddleston
