“The Winter’s Tale” Brings Comedy and Tragedy To UNH Stage

King Leontes of Sicily has loyal friends, a gracious queen, an adoring son and a child on the way. Yet in a sudden fit of jealousy, he drives his family and country to the brink of ruin. Thus begins his long journey through destruction to forgiveness. A wise and thrilling exploration of the restoring power of time, “The Winter’s Tale” is a complex comedy written in the latter part of Shakespeare’s life.

Directed by UNH Professor David Richman, “The Winter’s Tale” runs November 5-8 at 7:00 p.m. and November 9 at 2:00 p.m. at the University of New Hampshire Johnson Theatre. A special school group matinee will be performed on November 6 at 10:00 a.m.

For tickets, contact the MUB ticket office (Monday through Friday between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.) at 603-862-2290. You may also purchase tickets at www.unhmub.com/ticket. Tickets are $12.50 for general admission and $10.50 for seniors, UNH ID holders; and groups of 15 or more. The UNH Theatre Box Office opens one hour prior to curtain in the lobby at the Paul Creative Arts Center. For more information and show times or to learn about Season Subscription offerings at a discount, please call the Department of Theatre & Dance office at 603-862-2919, or visit us at www.unh.edu/theatre-dance.
