
For Immediate Release
February 8, 2010

Area Students Invited to UNH School Matinee & Drama Day

This spring, area students in grades 2-12 will have field trip offerings in the performing arts at the University of New Hampshire with our April 2 UNH Dance Company concert matinee and Spring Drama Day.

On April 2 at 10 a.m., students grade 2-12 are invited to the annual UNH Dance Company concert featuring a double bill performance. First up is an original ballet concerto choreographed and staged by UNH Director of Dance, C. Laurence Robertson. Following the ballet is the jazz, tap and aerial piece, "Duke Ellington Meets Sherlock Homes" which is a mystery set to dance, conceived of and choreographed by Professor of Dance, Gay Nardone. Tickets are $7.00 for school groups and home school groups.

On May 7, students grade 2-6 are invited to UNH's Spring Drama Day. This event begins at 10:00 a.m. and runs until 1:30. Students experience workshops in the performing arts and demonstrations in puppetry and the famous UNH aerial dancers. All tickets are $3.00.

All school matinees and Drama Days are sponsored by ArtsREACH, the education and outreach division of the UNH Department of Theatre & Dance.

Tickets for school events are $3.00 - $7.00 per person and can be reserved by calling 603.862.2150. Confirmations will be used for school groups and home school groups. Seating is first-come-first-serve and is guaranteed, as seats allow, with payment, purchase order, or reservation contract. For more information about UNH Department of Theatre & Dance field trips and how to reserve tickets, visit our website at www.unh.edu/theatre-dance.

##