

CONGRATULATIONS
GRADUATES...
WELCOME NEW ALUMNI!

Congratulations to the Class of 2011 and welcome to the UNH alumni family! Today, you join the ranks of more than 126,000 alumni who are eager to welcome you to the University of New Hampshire Alumni Association. While you were students here for a relatively short time, you will be UNH alumni for a lifetime.

For now, enjoy this special day! You've earned it. And before you leave this beautiful campus for all the corners of the world, we wish you and your loved ones who have joined you today all the best the University of New Hampshire has to offer, now and in the future.

COMMENCEMENT 2011

Musical pieces and their composers, in order of performance, are Pomp and Circumstance by Edward Elgar, The Star-Spangled Banner by Francis Scott Key, and Procession of Nobles by Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov.

This 100% post-consumer recycled fiber paper was manufactured in New Hampshire, process chlorine-free and carbon neutral using low-impact hydroelectric power and Green-e® Certified Renewable Energy.

Celebrate!

ALMA MATER

*New Hampshire, alma mater,
All hail, all hail to thee!
Behind thee tow'r the mountains,
Before thee roars the sea.
Thy sons and daughters ever
Thy praises loud will sing:
New Hampshire, alma mater,
Accept our offering.*

*We love thee, old New Hampshire,
And to the White and Blue,
Where'er our work shall call us,
We always will be true.
We'll ever guard thy honor,
Bright shall thy mem'ry be:
New Hampshire, alma mater,
All hail, all hail to thee!*

—H.F. MOORE, CLASS OF 1898

The faculty and staff extend a warm welcome and a heartfelt thanks to all who have entrusted their students' educations to the University of New Hampshire.
