

ARA DISCLAIMER POLICY

“The purpose of the Association shall be to offer programs for continuing education for retired people 50 years of age or older. Such programs are to offer a stimulating environment in which its members may participate while ‘learning to live and living to learn.’” ARA By-Laws, Section III, Purpose.

“The Active Retirement Association aims to enhance the quality of life for individuals who wish to keep intellectually alert, broaden their interests, explore new fields of Knowledge, and make new friends.” ARA Mission Statement

In keeping with its By-Laws and Mission Statement, the Active Retirement Association presents programs that represent a broad spectrum of topics and opinions in a variety of venues that meet the Association’s needs for convenient and comfortable meeting space. Accordingly, the Association does not take a position on political, social, ethical, religious or other issues. The views of the speakers at program sessions and/or general meetings are theirs and do not represent those of the Association. An invitation to speak or the use of a particular meeting site does not represent endorsements of the ideas or policies of speakers or the organizations involved.

Note: On the annual General Information Card, under the Program Disclaimer Section, the second sentence shall read: Programs of a controversial nature may be presented on occasion, but ARA does not endorse the viewpoints or opinions of its lecturer nor does use of a facility constitute ARA endorsement of the beliefs or policies of that facility.
