

Guiding Principles

Four Guiding Principles

1. Needs-Based
2. Outcomes-Focused
3. Local
4. Accessible

CPE is creating an updated, technologically advanced system of high-quality services for the professional development of New Hampshire child welfare and juvenile justice workers. CPE fosters excellence in the New Hampshire child protective and juvenile justice workforce by:

- Providing a comprehensive, outcomes-focused, and competency-based program of staff training, mentoring, and peer support, on-going professional development opportunities and other resources to enhance the capacity of agency staff, supervisors, caregivers, providers, and other stakeholders
- Ensuring all training and professional development activities are accessible and incorporate child welfare best practice research in an ongoing way
- Delivering training and support based on adult learning principles, utilization of innovative learning and networking technologies; and capacity building through train the trainer (TOT) programming
- Integrating and coordinating CPE's work with the current training infrastructure, as well as DCYF and stakeholders' needs and requirements
- Embedding needs assessment, program evaluation, and quality improvement processes throughout the entire system
- Ensuring all programs are high quality, as well as cost effective

Mission

The mission of the University of New Hampshire Center for Professional Excellence in Child Welfare (CPE) is to provide the most current and innovative training curriculum in order to facilitate the ongoing development of child welfare professionals. CPE supports the missions of the New Hampshire Division for Children, Youth & Families (DCYF) by providing educational opportunities that enhance the outcomes of safety, permanency and well-being for New Hampshire children and families.

Partners

The University of New Hampshire Center for Professional Excellence in Child Welfare (CPE) has a unique partnership with the New Hampshire Division for Children, Youth & Families. Through this partnership, CPE is able to provide a wide variety of training and professional development opportunities to those dedicated workers serving our state's most vulnerable populations.

In order to provide a comprehensive training program, CPE also partners with a number of other agencies including: CASA of NH, NAMI NH, NHHEAF, and Granite State College's Education & Training Partnership program.

To ensure a state-of-the-art training program using the most up to date research across multiple disciplines, CPE relies on numerous partnerships within the UNH community. These partners include: Department of Social Work, Academic Technology, Institute on Disability, Browne Center for Innovative Learning, Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning, JusticeWorks, and Crimes Against Children.
