1. Purpose

UNH is home to several campus ministries representing a variety of world religious and spiritual traditions. To meet the spiritual needs of our students, it is recommended UNH establish a volunteer chaplain position to provide spiritual guidance upon request to faculty, students, and staff and provide non-denominational, non-sectarian invocations/benedictions at University events. The chaplain will establish and work with the UNH Chaplain and Spiritual Life Association, a team of associated chaplains which consists of trained religious practitioners. The members of the UNH Chaplain and Spiritual Life Association may be asked to serve students seeking a particular religious perspective or who are seeking spiritual guidance and counsel. The Chaplain and Spiritual Life Association would help students stay connected with their faith traditions, as well as coordinate on-campus worship opportunities, and help students find off-campus congregations and organizations.

2. Mission

The UNH Chaplain and Spiritual Life Association is a spiritual community of associated chaplains, representing many of the world’s religious, spiritual, and faith traditions, who share a collective commitment to serving the spiritual needs of the students, faculty, and staff of The University of New Hampshire.

We seek to:

- create structures of inclusion for the diversity of faith traditions present on campus;
- create and support a rich diversity of caring communities in which students, faculty, and staff can explore and nurture their deepest convictions, and engage in honest and respectful conversation around questions of ultimate meaning, purpose, and value;
- cultivate and embody our respective traditions within the larger campus community through practices, celebrations, observances, and opportunities for reflection;
- offer programs and events across the University that promote religious, spiritual, and moral life;
- foster an intellectual life at the University that articulates thoughtful, diverse religious and spiritual voices that encourage spiritual literacy and interfaith understanding;
- model for the wider community how people who may come from profoundly different religious and spiritual perspectives can live cooperatively in community and appreciate and learn from each other’s differences;
- collaborate with other professionals within the University to encourage healthy practices, relationships, and ways of living that promote the overall intellectual, physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being of the community and its members;
- provide pastoral support and guidance to members of the University, both in times of crisis and of celebration;
- create awareness throughout the campus community so that students, staff, faculty, and others will recognize the Chaplain’s office as the place to turn in times of need and crisis; and
- hold each other accountable in mutually supportive ways to the very highest standards of University chaplaincy.

3. Student Learning Outcomes
As a result of engagement with Chaplain & Spiritual Life offerings, students (as well as participating faculty & staff) will….

1. Be aware of the needs of our students, staff, and faculty in order to offer pastoral care and support.
2. Be engaged in conversations about the meaning of their lives.
3. Be encouraged to grow spiritually, emotionally, relationally, and intellectually.
4. Gain a deeper understanding of their own faith traditions.
5. Expand their awareness of beliefs, traditions, and practices from other religious and spiritual traditions.
6. Identify the Chaplain’s Association as a place where those in our community may turn during a crisis.

Metrics

- Online campus surveys and focus groups
- Increase in worship services, lectures, dialogue circles, and other sponsored events hosted by the Chaplain and Spiritual Life Association
