A WORD FROM THE MANAGER

It’s the end of the semester, can you believe it? As I write this column, you may be writing a paper of your own, not to mention finals looming around the corner. During this time of increased workload and heightened stress, don’t forget to breathe. Seriously. Right now. Inhale slowly, count to three, and blow out the candles. Feel better? I hope you do. As finals progress we will have a number of relaxing socials for you here in ATW. From yoga to coloring, you’ll have many reminders to breathe. And if you’re feeling overwhelmed, my door is always open. I’m here for you, and I hope you absolutely crush your finals.

24 HOUR QUIET HOURS

Starting 1 am on Sunday, December 13th, Quiet Hours will be in effect until the building closes. Respect each other by staying quiet. Failure to do so will result in your being brought through the conduct system.
