

CO-ED APARTMENT/SUITE POLICIES

1. All members of group must meet age or class standing eligibility requirements.
2. Each member of group is expected to make a commitment to live in the co-ed apartment for the full academic year.
3. While apartments and suites may be co-ed, bedrooms within the apartment or suite may not.
4. Should a vacancy occur, the following actions may be taken:
  - a. The remaining residents may identify an eligible and appropriate replacement within timeframe provided by Housing.
  - b. Housing may choose to convert the suite/apartment to either male or female and relocate those residents who are affected by the change.
5. The Department of Housing may, at its discretion, prohibit or terminate any co-ed living arrangement that it deems unacceptable.
6. The above terms are in addition to those of the Room and Board Agreement.
