

Lunch Tray Labyrinth - Solving the Final Task Example

In the most complicated way you can think of, get the cafeteria tray from the first box into the cafeteria window in the last box. Draw an action picture of each device or gadget that moves the tray toward the window WITHOUT having to leave the lunch table. Describe the action on the line under each box. Be as silly, unique, and creative as you like in solving this task.

