The Rosenberg International Franchise Center (RIFC) is an academic center in the Peter T. Paul College of Business and Economics with a mission to explore and advance the understanding of the franchise business model and the franchised sectors of the US and global economies. For more details, please go to: https://www.unh.edu/rosenbergcenter/

Thanks to the generosity and support of the Rosenberg Family Foundation, Dunkin’ Brands, Choice Hotels International, and the Center’s Advisory Board members, the Rosenberg International Franchise Center is offering two (2) scholarships for deserving UNH students. Each scholarship is for $2,500 and can be used to help students meet their educational expenses.

1. Amount per scholarship: $2,500
2. Number of scholarships currently available: Two (2)
3. Eligibility: Full-time UNH students
4. Type of scholarship: Merit-based

5. Awarded based on:
   - Academic achievement
   - Extracurricular activities and achievements
   - Interest in franchising and entrepreneurship

6. Applicants should provide:
   - A one-to-two page write-up describing their academic and extracurricular activities/achievements and their interest in franchising and entrepreneurship
   - A recent resume

7. Application materials should be sent to:
   Dr E. Hachemi Aliouche at hachemi.aliouche@unh.edu

8. Deadline: January 31, 2018