

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC RESOURCES
PEER ACADEMIC MENTOR POSITION ~ AT A GLANCE

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT FROM WORKING AS AN ACADEMIC MENTOR

- strengthen your study strategies—notetaking and reading skills; exam prep/taking skills; time management; organizational strategies
- improve your GPA
- teach others individually and in small groups
- build the problem solving and leadership skills essential for professional jobs
- improve your communication and listening skills
- work as a part of a team of 16 Academic Mentors
- earn $10/hr with regular increases to do a rewarding job that you will love!

WHAT YOU WILL DO AS AN ACADEMIC MENTOR

- work individually and in small groups with students to improve their academic performance by teaching them:
 - Study Strategies
 - Time Management
 - Organizational Tools
- develop action plans with students to successfully balance their academic, work, and social commitments
- ensure students understand how to utilize course and campus resources
- represent CFAR at UNH events
- Participate in group training and supervision meetings

WHAT QUALIFICATIONS YOU NEED TO WORK AS AN ACADEMIC MENTOR

- be a current freshman, sophomore, or junior
- have a 3.0 GPA or higher
- commit to a full year of working at CFAR
- available to work about 8 hours a week
- eligibility for work study is strongly preferred
- complete an application by February 6th and return it to CFAR or to dda@unh.edu