

UNH DISCOVERY PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Discovery Foundation Skills

- ENGL 401* To be completed in the first year
* Also fulfills one of four required Writing Intensive courses
- Quantitative reasoning 1 course normally to be completed by the end of the first year or 32 credits
- Inquiry Course   1 course to be completed in the first or second year.

Inquiry (INQ) Courses:

- Inspire Curiosity
- Develop Understanding and Perspective Taking
- Clarify Standards of Thinking
- Create Effective Communicators

INQ courses (444 or INQ Attribute course) may be taken in a category below or within the major.

Discovery in the Disciplines – 1 course from each category

- Biological Science (BS)
- Environment, Technology, and Society (ETS)
- Fine and Performing Arts (FPA)
- Historical Perspectives (HP)
- Humanities (HUMA)
- Physical Science (PS)
- Social Science (SS)
- World Cultures (WC)

One (BS or PS) must have a Discovery laboratory (DLAB)

The Senior Year Capstone Experience

The Capstone allows you to reflect on your education and synthesize the knowledge and skills you have gained from your Discovery Program courses and major. The Capstone requirement may be satisfied through a course, created work or product, or some form of experiential learning. Departments may allow honors theses, mentored research projects, and other special student activities to substitute for designated department Capstones. The Capstone is approved and directed within your major during the senior year.