

Engagement and Faculty Development

First Year Fridays

First Year Fridays is a monthly series of workshops designed to give first year faculty access to expert resources that support their work with students and career success at UNH. First year faculty are encouraged to participate to network and learn about the UNH community. Join us Fridays 12-1:00 pm. For more information contact faculty.development@unh.edu

Date	Topic	Speaker
September 24	Teaching and Learning Success What resources are available to Support your teaching success? How can you design and assess effective instruction? Meet the Center for Excellence & Innovation in Teaching & Learning (CEITL) team.	Catherine Overson , CEITL Director Scott Kimball , Manager, Learning Development and Innovation (LDI)
October 8	Creating an Inclusive Community What if a student requests an accommodation? What resources are available to build an equitable and socially just community?	Scott Lapinsky , Director Student Academic Support (tentative) Cache Owens Velasquez , Director, Bearegard Center (tentative)
December 3	Supporting Student Mental Health What can you do when students show signs of distress?	Elisa Bolton , Interim Director Psychological and Counseling Services (PACS)
February 4	UNH Leads in Sustainability How can you get involved to link your teaching, research and/or service to sustainability?	Fiona Wilson , Deputy Chief Sustainability Officer, and Faculty Panel
March 4	Making the Most of the Library Your trusted academic and community partner is recognized as a dynamic center for developing independent learners and fostering world-class scholarship.	Kathrine Aydelott , Information Literacy Librarian
April 15	Annual Reports: Hear from a faculty panel- What Annual Reports are and why they matter.	TBD Faculty panel