Thursday, September 21st, 12:40-2 pm, Dimond Library room 352: Practicing Diversity Out Loud

RSVP at  https://www.events.unh.edu/RegistrationForm.pm?event_id=22141

- This session discusses the variety of ways junior faculty can play a vital role in enhancing diversity at UNH through our teaching, advising, and service contributions. Amid present-day climate issues relative to diversity and inclusive excellence both on our campus and abroad, how can we enhance this pillar of our university’s core value and strategic vision with integrity, effectiveness, and an entrepreneurial spirit of exemplary citizenship? Our “give and take” discussion format will aid us in addressing this "Grand Challenge" for COLA educators and the unique role junior faculty can play in helping to transform the world one student at a time.

Thursday, October 5th, 12:40-2 pm, Dimond Library room 352: Teaching, Advising and Career and Professional Development for Students (CAPS).

RSVP at  https://www.events.unh.edu/RegistrationForm.pm?event_id=22141

- This session is designed to provide you with access to the resources at UNH that can be used to improve your instruction and provide top-notch advising and support for your students. The directors of the Advising Center and CAPS will be meeting with us.

- Homework for this meeting: Please prepare a brief description of what you are teaching at UNH and your own Pedagogy in the classroom. Please share a positive and also challenging experience you have had in classroom this semester as a new instructor to UNH.
