Academic Convocation:
Core Curriculum and the University Education

Sponsored jointly by the Office of the Provost and the Faculty Senate

Friday, August 30, 2019
9:00 to 11:00 AM
Granite State Room in the MUB

Please join Provost Wayne Jones and Faculty Senate chair, David Bachrach, as they kick off the new academic year.

Following a welcome by President James Dean, Professor Nicoletta Gullace, chair of the Discovery Committee will offer a keynote address on the developing national consensus around university core curricula. Following the keynote, faculty, administrators, and students will engage in a moderated round table discussion to explore areas of agreement and difference regarding the nature, purpose and goals of a core curriculum and the part it should play in a well-rounded university education.
