

UNH FACULTY SENATE
MOTION # XX-M3

on changing the wording of three questions in the student evaluation of teaching for UNH online courses

1. Motion presenter: Alberto, Chair of the ad hoc Teaching Evaluation Form Implementation Committee.

2. Dates of Faculty Senate discussion: 10/12/2015, 10/26/2015

3. Rationale: On April 27, 2015, Faculty Senate XIX approved a motion to modify the following questions in the student evaluation of teaching for UNH online courses:

Question 4: Was well prepared for class

Question 6: Encouraged discussion and/or questions

Question 10: Was available to students outside of class.

The ad hoc teaching evaluation committee proposed to modify these questions because, in their current form, they are not directly applicable for online courses.

4. Motion: The ad hoc teaching evaluation form implementation committee moves that the following changes be implemented for Questions 4, 6, and 10 in the student evaluation of teaching for UNH online courses:

Question 4: Presented the course content in an organized manner

Question 6: Encouraged the sharing of ideas among course participants

Question 10: Remained available to students via telephone or electronic communication

5. Senate action: The motion passed unanimously with one abstention.

6. Senate chair's signature: Deborah A. Kenigson

Forwarded to: President Mark Huddleston, on November 10, 2015

Interim Provost P.T. Vasudevan, on November 10, 2015

Mary Rhiel, Interim Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, on Nov. 10, 2015

Deb Timmons, Institutional Research and Assessment, on November 10, 2015

All college deans, on November 10, 2015

All department chairs, on November 10, 2015