ABOUT THE FRANK S. LORD SCHOLARSHIP

The will of Frank S. Lord, a prominent Ossipee, N.H., businessman for many years, established an educational fund in 1951 in memory of his parents, Francis Hubbard Lord and Hannah Blaisdell Lord. A varying number of renewable awards are made to students from Carroll County. However, the students need not have necessarily attended preparatory school in Carroll County, nor in the State of NH. "Worthy boys and girls who are without personal or family means to secure such education as is provided by the said University.." are eligible ".. for each of the four years."
