

GSS Newsletter

February 2021

Graduate Student Senate

A BRIEF UPDATE FROM THE GRADUATE STUDENT SENATE

The Grad Student Senate had our first meeting of the spring semester on Feb. 3. We were joined by Nicholas Fitzgerald, the undergraduate Student Body President, to talk about goals for the year, future grad-undergrad collaboration, and more! We loved having Nick and look forward to many more chances to collaborate.

Diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) continues to be a top priority for GSS as we begin the spring semester. Members from the GSS Diversity & Inclusivity Committee are working together with the Undergraduate Student Senate and other USNH student government organizations in a system-wide working group to develop a climate survey and plans for future initiatives. Stay tuned for more updates!

This could be you!

Follow the GSS on social media to get to know your senators during the month of February...

...and stay tuned for more info on 2021-2022 GSS elections in March!

LOOKING AHEAD

Upcoming GSS Meeting

Graduate Student Senate holds public meetings and all graduate students are welcome to attend. Meetings are every other Wednesday from 12 – 1:30 pm on Zoom. The next meeting is on Feb. 17th.

Email grad.student.senate@unh.edu for Zoom info to attend the meeting.

Grad School Events

The Graduate School has a master calendar with all of their events for the semester! Check out the full lineup of 3MT info sessions, Critical Dialogue Series, professional development, and more here!

And don't forget to check out the Grad School's updated Durham Grad Student Thrive Guide

Stay tuned for more programs and don't forget to follow @UNH_GradSchool and @UNH_GSS on Twitter for the latest updates

Stay safe and be well!

Never Miss a Single Issue!
Click Here to Subscribe

