Graduate Student Senate

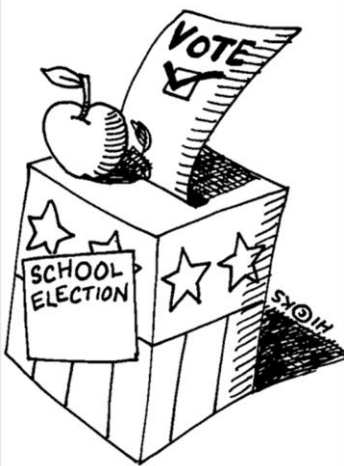

A BRIEF UPDATE FROM THE GRADUATE STUDENT SENATE

March is election month for GSS and the nomination process is in full swing! Nominations opened February 24th and will run through March 9th. Elections will be held online and begin on March 9th at 5pm and close on March 16th. Any graduate student who is interested in improving grad student lives and representation on campus should consider running for a position. You can nominate yourself and/or other students for up to two (2) positions. Visit our website for a full list of GSS positions and an FAQ about running for GSS. You can also contact grad.student.senate@unh.edu for more information and to submit your nomination.

Last month, GSS passed an amendment to better represent each of the colleges and programs on campus. In doing so, we've created a new senator to represent the UNH Online graduate students and added senators for colleges that have been growing. Even more opportunities to get involved!

Nominations to run for Graduate Student Senate positions for the 2020-2021 academic year are open and will run through March 9th. Elections begin March 9th at 5pm!

Email grad.student.senate@unh.edu to nominate yourself or someone else for up to two (2) positions.
