Graduate Student Senate

A BRIEF UPDATE FROM THE GRADUATE STUDENT SENATE

We hope that this newsletter finds everyone well as we reach the mid-way point of the fall semester. Many new senators have joined GSS this year and we encourage you to check out our website to get to know your senators or to get in touch! We have been busy meeting with administrators and serving on campus committees such as the Spring Student Engagement and Spring Planning Committees to help advocate for grad student needs, based on the findings of our grad student Fall Reopening Survey.

LOOKING AHEAD

Upcoming GSS Meeting

Graduate Student Senate holds public meetings and all graduate students are welcome to attend. Our next meeting will be Wednesday, October 21 from 4:00 – 5:30 pm on Zoom.

Email grad.student.senate@unh.edu for the Zoom info to attend the meeting.

Graduate School COVID-19 Resources

The Graduate School has compiled answers to many grad student questions surrounding COVID-19 on their webpage. This is a great place to start if you have questions about assistantships, graduation, health and wellness, and more! As always, don't hesitate to reach out if your questions are still unanswered!

Stay tuned for more virtual programs and don't forget to follow @UNH_GradSchool and @UNH_GSS on Twitter for the latest updates

Stay safe and be well!

2020 Election National Election Resources on Campus

We encourage all grad students who are eligible to register and vote in the upcoming election on Nov. 3, 2020

It's not too late to make a plan for voting absentee or in person!

Students living in Durham can sign up here to register and vote absentee on campus on October 24. Students living outside of Durham can register to vote through their Town Clerk's office.
