Re: Nominations for AY21-22 Faculty Awards

At UNH, one of the ways that we recognize and celebrate our faculty is through the University Faculty Excellence Awards. I write to solicit your nominations of outstanding UNH colleagues for each of these awards:

- Jean Brierley Award for Excellence in Teaching
- Distinguished Professor Award
- Award for Excellence in Research
- Award for Excellence in Public Service
- Excellence in International Engagement Award
- Outstanding Faculty Award – Associate Professor
- Outstanding Faculty Award – Assistant Professor

A formal nomination is required for each person you recommend, due no later than Friday, March 4, 12:00 p.m. The UNH Faculty Awards Committee will review nominations, solicit additional information, and make recommendations.

Detailed procedures for preparing and submitting nominations, as well as award descriptions and criteria, are available at: <https://www.unh.edu/provost/faculty-awards>.

In addition to the awards noted above, there is another university-wide faculty award that I want to call to your attention, the Graduate Faculty Mentor Award. This has a different nomination due date (Monday, February 8) and nomination procedure. For details:

Thank you,
