Dear Fellow 1970 Classmates,

The excitement is building for our 50th reunion on June 5th-7th, 2020 in Durham.

You may remember our 1970 UNH yearbook, The Granite. It was a one of a kind record of our graduation year as we launched into the “real world”. In conjunction with our 50th class reunion, we are planning a 2020 version of our yearbook, entitled The Class of 1970 Golden Granite.

The 2020 Golden Granite will be our way of telling our stories in our own words and pictures in a yearbook style collection. We can start where we left off in June of 1970 and fill in the gaps since graduation to give everyone a glimpse of what has transpired in our lives with family, friends and classmates. Here is the opportunity to reminisce and collect our stories because, try as we wish, there is never enough time to share them all on reunion weekend. The Golden Granite will be available in a soft cover and on-line version made available exclusively to our fellow classmates.

Please take some time to reflect upon how your experiences have unfolded and describe them on the questionnaire below and email them directly to Phebe Moore at Phebe.Moore@unh.edu. We encourage you to include photos as well as newspaper clippings with your completed form, and we will include them with your page in the Golden Granite. Phebe will also serve as a point of contact to assist with your questions, ideas or formatting.

Dig out all your photos from the attic, basement, and the bookcase that tell your story and send them along in the enclosed suggested format. Your help in making the Golden Granite as inclusive and complete as possible is truly appreciated.

We plan on posting updates about the reunion on our Class of 1970 Facebook page. If you have not had an opportunity to look at the group online, now is the time. Please join us via https://www.facebook.com/groups/unhclass1970

Many thanks and see you in Durham, June 5th to 7th, 2020.

The 1970 Golden Granite Co-Editors and Team,
Edrina Kilbashian, Jeff Crane , Craig Abbott and Phebe Moore
