Wed 9/19/12 - 3-5PM, Huddleston Ballroom
A Campus Conversation on Freedom and Responsibility:
Reflections from The Hunger Games
Join the discussion on the tensions between freedom and responsibility in The Hunger Games... and in our lives today.

Wed 10/17/12 - 3–5PM, Granite State Room, MUB
A Campus Conversation on Freedom and Responsibility:
Freedom and Responsibility in Choosing a President

Thurs 11/8/12 - 7PM, Strafford Room, MUB
What Happened: A Post-Election Discussion with Dante Scala and Andy Smith

Facilitated by musician and educator, TJ Wheeler
Sponsored by the UNH Library’s New Hampshire Library of Traditional Jazz & the UNH Discover Program

Wed 2/20/13 – 5-6:30PM, MUB Theater II
The African Diaspora, Slavery, and Civil War
The role of Africa, the Caribbean, slavery and religion in the development of African-American music

Wed 3/27/13 – 5-6:30PM, MUB Theater II
Freedom, Jim Crow, and the Development of American’s True Art From: Jazz
How black migration, segregation and a variety of musical traditions came together to produce jazz

Wed 4/17/13 – 5-6:30, MUB Theater II
The River Runs with the Blues: Jazz Comes Home and the Blues had a Baby
Jazz simultaneously evolves and returns to its roots, while the blues puts a permanent stamp on American popular music