Spring 2016 Nationwide Student Video Contest

What you could win!
The winning student group will get the opportunity to have dinner with reddit Co-Founder Alexis Ohanian AND $2,500 to share amongst their group. Additionally, your campus safety department will get a $2,500 donation from LiveSafe.

Create your video
Work as a group or individually. Create a unique video that demonstrates the use and value of LiveSafe at your school. The video should be no longer than 90 seconds. Keep it clean, LiveSafe reserves the right to disqualify any video because of questionable content.

Submit your creation
Post your video to YouTube and email the URL link of your creation to video@livesafemobile.com.

Subject line: Team name + LiveSafe video entry
Email content: Link to video, first and last names of team members, email addresses of team members, and the school you represent.

How to win
It is a nationwide contest and there will only be one winning video. The video that gets the most views on YouTube wins. Views will be tallied by LiveSafe on April 15th, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. EST.

Questions?
Send any questions to video@livesafemobile.com

Need Inspiration?
Check out #CoplineBling made by University of Delaware Police Department.