The Story That Wants to Be Told

Telling the Truth about Rape as A Strategy of War

A Conversation
Psychologist, Traumatologist Selvije Izeti speaks on behalf of women whose stories have been silenced. She will tell her own story as a teen refugee, a survivor of a war in which 20,000 women of Kosovo were raped, tortured and often murdered in rape camps. Learn about ongoing support for these survivors.

When: Thursday March 10
Where: MUB Theater II
Time: 5:00 PM

Sponsors:
Community, Equity and Diversity Office; Prevention Innovation Research Center; Sexual Harassment and Rape Prevention Program; Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Office; Political Science; President’s Commission on the Status of Women; Women’s Studies