Women's Studies Convocation

Intersectionality and Alliance: Queer, Questioning and Ally Youth Working In and Through Difference.

Professor Cris Mayo will talk about how Gay Straight Alliances create possibilities to rethink the ways we understand ourselves in relation to each other and intersectionality in terms of sexualities, genders, races, ethnicities, religions, class, and knowledge.

Join the WS faculty and students to learn more about how we can develop helpful interpersonal and political skills as we do this work and create new opportunities for connection and social justice work.
