To Whom It May Concern:

Under the leadership of Judicial Affairs Chairperson, Samuel Paris, the Student Senate of the University of New Hampshire voted to approve the changes made to code of conduct. The Student Senate believes that all of the relevant stakeholders were a part of the conversation, including members of the Student Senate, and the Senate believes these changes to be necessary and responsible.

Respectfully,

Gabriel Hoffman
Student Senate Speaker
University of New Hampshire
Student Senate Resolution XXXVII – 36 Regarding the Office of Community Standards

Introduced by: Judicial Affairs Chairperson, Samuel Paris

Date: March 22nd, 2016

Whereas, members of the University of New Hampshire (UNH) community have expressed serious concerns regarding the current University Conduct system, which is controlled by the Office of Community Standards (OCS), and

Whereas, UNH in September 2015 initiated, as a result of the aforementioned concerns, a review of the University Conduct System in the Students’ Rights Rules and Responsibilities’ Document (SRRR) through the Dean of Students’ Office, and

Whereas, this evaluation team, led by the current Senior Vice Provost of Student Life, included stakeholders from OCS, Student Senate and the USNH General Counsel’s Office and other outside stakeholders, has reviewed the entirety of the Code of Conduct section in the SRRR, and

Whereas, the changes that have been complied have been reviewed by members of the UNH community and specifically members of UNH Student Senate, therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Senate of the University of New Hampshire to approve the following changes to the Students Rights, Rules and Responsibilities in the Code of Conduct section 1 for the 2016-17 Academic Year

Senate Action: Passes
Speaker Verification: