To those whom it concerns,

On behalf of the Student Senate of the University of New Hampshire I present to you a resolution passed unanimously requesting that the University of New Hampshire administration “take the necessary steps to host a 2016 presidential debate on the University of New Hampshire Durham campus. The study body is confident that hosting a presidential debate would have immeasurable benefits for the University of New Hampshire, and is equally convinced that the University of New Hampshire has the necessary resources to host such a debate. The Student Senate of the University of New Hampshire is available to assist in this process in any way that may be deemed both appropriate and helpful.

Respectfully,
Gabriel Hoffman
Speaker of the University of New Hampshire Student Senate

Student Senate Resolution XXXVII – 3 Holding a Presidential Debate at the University of New Hampshire
Introduced by: Student Body Vice-President, Ryan Grogan
Date: October 4th, 2015

Whereas, The State of New Hampshire is the first state to host a presidential primary election, and

Whereas, the University of New Hampshire is the state’s flagship University, and

Whereas, hosting a debate would have unquantifiable tangible and intangible benefits, and

Whereas, The University of New Hampshire has many venues, including the Whittemore Center which would and has suited the needs of a presidential debate previously, and

Whereas, a presidential debate would empower students to exercise their civic duty to vote, and

Whereas, students want candidates to come to the University of New Hampshire to speak, therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Senate of the University of New Hampshire that the University of New Hampshire administration takes the necessary steps to host a 2016 presidential debate on the University of New Hampshire Durham campus.

Senate Action: Passes Unanimously
