Tourism’s Impact on Economic Growth and Development in Spain

Jessica Dennis
Brief History

Spanish Civil War 1936-1939

Isolationist Policy & Autarchic Economy

Stabilization Plan of 1959
International Tourist Arrivals 1980-2008

In Millions of People

In 1980, international tourist arrivals were approximately 10 million people. By 2008, the number had grown to over 60 million people.
International Tourism Receipts as a % of Spain's GDP
Receipts from International Tourism, Remittances & Foreign Direct Investment

US$ in year 2000

- Int'n Tourism Receipts
- Remittances
- FDI

International Tourism Receipts, Foreign Direct Investment Receipts & Remittances as % of Spain's GDP

Year

- Int's Tourism % GDP
- R %GDP
- FDI %GDP
1. Employment in the Service Sector

2. Industrial Sector

3. Infrastructure